The soft glimmer of the gas flame creates visions of cobblestone streets, gas lighters and horse drawn carriages. The images dance through the imagination like the light dancing from the open flame of our gas lanterns.

Create a setting or re-create a period with a variety of available lantern designs. Whether your taste is for the dancing light of the open flame or the constant soft ember-like glow of the mantle style, Kahalley's craftsmen are ready to create the effect you desire.
